In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March 2024 and its profit and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules there under, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. Reporting of key audit matters as per SA 701 is not applicable to the Company as it is an unlisted company.

Annexure A

Responsibilities for Audit of Financial Statement

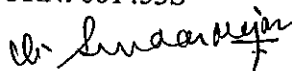

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- a) Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- b) Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls. This being a private company covered under the exemption provided in Notification No. GSR 583(E) dated June 13, 2017, the requirement of furnishing a detailed report regarding the internal financial controls over financial reporting is dispensed with and hence no such certificates is separately furnished.
- c) Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- d) Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, we need to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- e) Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

The accounting policies have been consistently applied by the Company and are consistent with those used in previous year unless and other wise specifically indicated. For recognition of income and expenses, accrual basis of accounting is followed.

2. Use of Estimates:

The presentation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles require estimates and assumptions to be made by the management that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the results of operations during the reporting year end. Although these estimates and the associated assumption are based upon management's best knowledge, historical experience, other facts that are considered to be relevant and also based on the inputs obtained from internal and external sources, of current events and actions, actual results could differ from these estimates. The Estimates and the underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Significant judgments and estimates about the carrying amount of assets and liabilities include useful lives of tangible and intangible assets, impairment of tangible assets, intangible assets which may include goodwill, investments, employee benefits and other provisions and recoverability of deferred tax assets. per invoices raised is accounted as income which includes the retention money agreed to be retained and the entire invoice value is recognized as income and this method is being followed consistently from many years.

Export Sales: Revenue in respect of Sales of equipment, material, pipes etc is recognized when such equipment, material, pipes etc as per specifications are delivered at port and treated as constructive delivery and income recognized.

This retention money receivable is segregated and shown separately as retention money under the head short term loans and advances. This has been done with a view to adopt better disclosure norms. This accounting of the amounts differently does not have any effect on the profitability or on the Balance Sheet.

In case of installations and erection works, revenue is recognized based on the terms of the agreement and by reference to stage of completion of the installation or erection work. The work for which check measurement is done, and accepted by the client, progressive invoices raised and accepted by the customer are accounted as income at the point of acceptance of the invoices as the risk and rewards generally associated with such work are passed on to the customer when the invoices are accepted. In other cases where work is executed and check measured and measurements accepted by client but no invoices are raised or could not be raised, depending upon the stage of execution of the work and as per the estimate of the site engineers, the cost of such portion of work is taken as work in progress and is accordingly dealt in the accounts. In this case also the retention money involved is accounted as per invoices raised as revenue. For better disclosure purposes this amount is segregated and shown separately as in the case of sales and this will not have any effect either on the profit or on the Balance Sheet.

Discounts receivable is recognized as and when the supplier grants the same and a right accrues to the company for claiming the same or at the point when payment is received for such discount or when such discount is adjusted against payments to be made to such supplier of goods.

Interest and commission are recognized on a time proportion basis, taking in to account the amount outstanding and the rates applicable. In cases where the receipt is doubtful the income is not recognized till such time that such eventuality is removed as prudence and as per the income recognition norms of AS-9.

In case of interest on refunds the same is recognized as and when orders are passed quantifying the interest payable on such refunds by respective authorities.

Miscellaneous income and income on sale of scrap is recognized as and when such income is received.

15.1	Retention money represents the amounts receivable towards supplies made and services provided. But the customers' retain an agreed amount towards assurance for the quality parameters of the material supplied and the same will be released by the customers as soon as the period agreed is complete or against a BG provided by the Company. Though it is definitely a trade receivable for better disclosure purposes the same is shown separately under the head retention money. Similar situation arises in works contract portion also and even here invoices are raised for the full value of the work done and the same is accounted as income and the invoiced amount other than the agreed retention money was taken to trade receivable and the retention money portion for better disclosure norms was bifurcated and shown separately here. The total amount shown includes retention both on supplies and works executed. The total invoice values have been accounted as revenue
15.2	Balance with government authorities include income tax refunds receivable amounting to Rs.6.59 lakhs most of them of which were adjusted against the demands raised for earlier assessmnet years. 17.1	Both in the case of sale of material and labour charges for work contracts the total billed value is taken as revenue as was done in all the previous years. This method of accounting of sales and labour charges as per invoices raised as revenue is being followed consistently. In both cases a portion of the billed amount is retained by the customers towards supply of assured quality material and also towards satisfactory completion of the jobs respectively. This retention amount will be released at the end of the agreed period for which such retention is permissible or it can even be released earlier against BG issued by the company towards the same. Please refer Note No.15.1 above. In spite of the fact that such retention does not accrue as right to receive it has been taken as income as right to claim the same at the appropriate time has arisen at the point of making the invoice for the supplies made and for the progressive part of the work done as per the terms of the contracts for supply or for labour job.
17.2	The Interest received from FDs are taken as other operating revenue based on the legal position. The Apex Court has held that interest received from FDs which are given as lien against guarantees be classified as business income. Based on this decision as the deposits are inextricably and exclusively used for the purpose of business the interest is taken as operative income to fall in line with the judgement of the Apex court.

Note No	Particulars
27	a. The contingent liabilities include bank guarantee given, in favor of NSIC for their revolving limit given for purchase on material, towards advances from customers, performance guarantee and also for other guarantees given for withdrawal of retention money from the projects under taken. The amount of bank guarantees outstanding as on 31st March 2024 amount to 4,89,54,684/- Towards these guarantees given by bank a lien is created on the FDs and RD (including interest accrued and will be accruing) of Rs.1,81,19,094-. These deposit receipts are lodged with bank towards margin money for extending such guarantees and a lien is created on them. These guarantees though are recognized as contingent liabilities no provision for the same is made in the accounts. Please see Note No. 5.1.5.5, 14.1 and 17.2 also.
	b. The Company has also income tax demands outstanding for the AYs 2006-07 & 2007-08, 2008-09 and AY 2020-21 amounting to Rs.31976 hundreds plus accrued interest as per the income tax portal. With respect to the demand raised for 2006-07, 2007-08 and 2008-09 the company has filed RTI applications and grievance asking for details for demand raised to take further action from the companies side. The assessing officer provided the intimation copies but the same were not in line with the demand raised in the portal. A portion of these demands were already adjusted against the eligible refunds to the company. The replies received from the department were incomplete and not matching with the demands raised in online portal. Further grievances were raised from company's side and still the grievances are pending for Since there is no clarity from the department on the information provided, the same is treated as contingent liability till final resolution is received from the department and final demand is arrived by the department.
	c. The Company has also contingent sales tax demands for the Financial years 2011-12 to 2014-15 amounting to Rs.30.68 Lakhs. The company had got favourable orders before the lower authorities and the department has gone for further appeal and the case is still pending for hearing 28	The Company covers all the eligible employees under PF, ESI, Bonus, Mediclaim, and Gratuity as mentioned below. To this extent AS 15 (Revised) is followed by the company.
	a. EPF is paid to all employees working in the Company except for employee/s on probation period/or aged above 60 years. Sub-contractor's employees in few project sites are also covered in this scheme. Majority of the sub contractors' have enrolled for PF and are submitting the PF records to the company
	b. With respect to ESI, all employees excepting those who are under probation and those who are not on the roll for more than 6 months are covered. Majority of the sub-contractors have enrolled for ESI and are submitting payment records to the company. Mediclaim Insurance is provided to all employees other than those covered under ESI. Workmen Compensation is provided for the subcontractor employees in those project areas.
	c. The Company operates Group Gratuity Plan for employees. The cost of providing defined benefits is determined using the Projected Unit Credit Method with actuarial valuations being carried out at each reporting date. The defined benefit obligations recognized in the Balance Sheet represent the present value of the defined benefit obligations as reduced by the fair value of plan assets, if applicable. Any defined benefit asset (negative defined benefit obligations resulting from this calculation) is recognized representing the present value of available refunds and reductions in future contributions to the plan. The entire liability towards gratuity is considered as current as the company is expected to contribute this amount to the gratuity fund within the next twelve months. The Company has purchased insurance policy, which is basically a year-on-year cash accumulation plan in which the interest rate is declared on yearly basis and is guaranteed for a period of one year. The insurance Company, as part of the policy rules, makes payment of all gratuity outgoes happening during the year (subject to sufficiency of funds under the policy). The policy, thus, mitigates the liquidity risk. However, being a cash accumulation plan, the duration of assets is shorter compared to the duration of liabilities. Thus, the Company is exposed to movement in interest rate (in particular, the significant fall in interest rates, which should result in an increase in liability without corresponding increase in the asset). The Company treats accumulated leave expected to be carried forward beyond twelve months, as long-term employee benefit for measurement purposes. The Group presents the leave as a current liability in the balance sheet; to the extent it does not have an unconditional right to defer its settlement for 12 months after the reporting date d. The minimum Bonus payable is equated for twelve months and is paid along with monthly salary. Additional bonus is considered based on profitability and cash flow of the Company for the year. Temporary probationaries are not covered under this scheme as the attrition is high and they seldom stay with the Company for more than 5 or 6 months.
29	Expenditure on employees who are in receipt of remuneration of Rs.1,02, 00,000/- per annum if employed for the full year or Rs.8,50,000/- per month when employed for a part of the year is Nil.
